Privacy Policy

Synergetic Data Systems Inc. (“us”, “we”, or “our”) operates the synergetic-data.com, uniform.com, and cirrusprint.com websites (“sites” or “site”). This page informs you of our policies regarding the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information we receive from users of the Sites. This document was last updated December 13, 2016.

Data Collection

Our sites contain forms in which you may submit personal information to us, such as your name and email address, and other contact information. We collect this information in databases accessible only to us. We may use this information to contact you for support and marketing purposes, or when aggregated with other user’s information, to improve our sites. You may request that we not contact you at any time. We will not share any of this information with any third parties, except as required by law.

Our employees and contractors who may have access to this data are required to sign non-disclosure agreements where they agree to not disclose the information to any third parties.

Logs

Our web servers maintain logs in accordance with standard industry practice. The information logged about your site use includes which pages you visit, the date and time you visit them, and your internet address. Information you post to us in forms is not logged in the web server logs. We may analyze the log data in order to improve our sites, but do not look for personal information. We do not share log files with any third parties, except as required by law.

In addition, we may use third party services such as Google Analytics that collect, monitor and analyze your site visit information. How these third parties use your data is outside of our control and subject to their respective privacy policies.

Cookies

We use web browser cookies to enhance the experience of users on our sites, by using a session identifier so that the web server can recognize when you return to the site. In addition, sites may use browser storage to retain some information supplied in entry forms for future use. This data remains stored on your system, not ours.

Other Policies

While not related to our sites, in order to support your use of our products, we sometimes will request from you a variety of information, which may include personal or proprietary information about you or your company. Such information may include reports or print data, logo images, job definitions, log files, or other information we might need to reproduce an error or otherwise be able to provide you with support. This information will be stored on systems only accessible to us, and used only for support purposes. While we use encrypted communication methods, such as SSL when accessing our email servers, we can’t guarantee that data in transit is accessible only to us.
